- Bachelors of Business Administration - James Madison University
- MBA - Virginia Commonwealth University

AFFILIATIONS / MEMBERSHIPS

- VCU Association of Real Estate Alumni
- Member of Greater Richmond Association of Commercial Real Estate (GRACRE) and CoreNet Global

CURRENT ROLE

As a member of the Corporate Services Group and Office Brokerage Team, Ken's primary responsibility is to assist corporate clients with their real estate needs on a local, regional and national level. Ken assists clients with real estate asset optimization and strategies that match their short and long term goals. He then provides clients with the execution of these strategies in the marketplace.

Ken has approximately 20 years of extensive experience in corporate real estate throughout North America beginning in 1994 with James River/Fort James Corporation and most recently with Media General, Inc. as Director, Real Estate and Facilities. During his time with Media General, he was responsible for the development and sale of Atlee Station, a 236-acre corporate park. Ken has additional corporate real estate experience in the areas of green field site acquisition, lease administration, real estate tax appeals and facilities management.
