CURRENT ROLE

Chris's responsibilities with Colliers International include assisting tenants and landlords in the leasing of office space as well as representing sellers and buyers in the purchase of investment properties. Chris's primary focus is the Hampton Roads MSA.

A Hampton Roads native, Chris has worked exclusively in the real estate industry since 1995. He has assisted in the marketing, leasing, management, acquisition, and disposition of retail, office, and industrial properties in areas including Princeton, NJ, Washington DC, and throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. Chris began his career with Matrix Development Group in Cranbury, NJ. In 1998, he returned to his hometown to work for GVA Advantis in Hampton Roads and moved to the Washington DC Metro Area in 2000 as their office leasing specialist. While living in Washington DC, Chris joined NPV Direct Invest as Acquisitions Manager concentrating in the Mid-Atlantic. Chris returned to Norfolk, VA in 2009 and became Director of Sales and Leasing for Summit Real Estate Advisors before transitioning to Colliers International to assist in the opening of the Hampton Roads office.

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY AFFILIATIONS

Chris has assisted with the Downtown Norfolk Council, Old Dominion University Wrestling Fund Raising Committee, TowneBank Leadership Board, and the Hampton Roads Chamber of Commerce. Chris is a longtime volunteer with Ronald McDonald Charities. He volunteers as an assistant wrestling coach and actively supports the Virginia Arts Festival, the Coalition for Hearing, Education and Research (CHEAR), Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters (CHKD), Physicians for Peace and the Chesapeake Bay Foundation.
