CURRENT ROLE

With a diverse background in education, grassroots development and entrepreneurship, I am passionate about engaging the core values of Harrison & Bates of service, expertise, and community, and working within our urban neighborhoods. Prior to joining Colliers, I served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Guatemala, an English teacher in Spain, and an interpreter with Chesterfield County Public Schools. As Richmond evolves, I understand the importance of embracing the growing Hispanic communities and believe that the key to a thriving city is diversity. A native to Richmond, I promote sustainable growth and development with a focus on the bigger picture. As a previous small business owner, I know firsthand the sacrifice and commitment it takes for my clients to thrive and am dedicated to serving them with integrity and enthusiasm.
